Work Description

D POD HVAC DOWN. Was asked to inspect D pod unit due to abnormal noise issue. Found that the condenser fan motor bearings have excessive drag, especially at lower rpm. Contacted supplier about getting price and availability. Ordered replacement parts for replacement ASAP. Picked up new condenser fan motor, rain shield, and blade. Checked in with David and was told to replace the components as he was busy. Roped all tools and equipment to roof, shut off unit per safety regulations, and removed old motor. Mounted new motor, verified wiring connections, mounted rain shield and blade. Verified all hardware and mounting bolts are secured and clearances correct. The unit has been welded on sometime in the past and the fan blade is tight to opening of unit, but it does spin freely. Powered unit on and verified rotation before removing all tools, debris, and failed components.

The Arkansas Commission of Law Enforcement Standards and Training wanted to present Deputy Gaines with an award. Deputy Directors Jason Lawrence and Kelvin Sergeant wanted to thank the Quorum Court for the opportunity to be there and present this award. Law enforcement across this country does amazing things every single day. There is a small group of individuals out there that want to point out the bad. Several years ago, we wanted to find a way to recognize the men and women that do acts above and beyond the call of duty. We came up with the Invictus award after a poem. Mr. Lawrence stated it was an honor to get to recognize one of the men and women who reside here. Mr. Sergeant stated it gives me a distinct honor and pleasure to present this award to Deputy Gaines. Mr. Sergeant stated he chose this profession because it was near and dear to me, I never wanted to be a firefighter because I was too scared to enter a building that was engulfed in fire, but yet this is what Deputy Gaines did, not only did he do it one time, but he also went back in a second time. He couldn't breathe, suffered injuries to himself and when I thought about that to barely have an opportunity to recognize this young man for putting himself and his life and his health in harms way to save someone else. Unfortunately, he was not able to save someone else, but it wasn't because the effort was not given. Deputy Gaines was presented with the Invictus Award.

There will be a ribbon cutting on the new Workman's in Mulberry on October 21st.

ADJOURN: Motion made by Justice Peppas, second: Justice Morgan. ALL IN FAVOR.
